Project for supporting community health clinic

Mr. Jesudoss and his wife Paulrani are involved in social welfare activities by conducting health awareness camps, medical screening camps, HIV awareness and care etc in Bangalore and surrounding areas. They have started a community health clinic for rural area people at BK Halli, which is located near to Bagalur, Bangalore District. This clinic is providing medical services to the people in surrounding villages. Medicines for basic ailments, equipments for preliminary diagnosis, furniture for patients-care were the needs of this clinic. They have approached us for providing some medicines, equipments and furnitures. FAMIN has raised funds towards this project. With the help of donations from many donors, we were able to purchase and provide the following items to the clinic on 10th March 2019.

1. Basic medicines, injections, ointments etc.
2. Moveable Patient cot
3. Waterbed

Mr. Jesudoss and his wife Paulrani have expressed their thanks to FAMIN Trust and the contributors towards this project.
